The Sanctuary Lamp

This Week's Sanctuary Lamp
Is in Memory of Molly Campochiaro
Requested By Her Husband, Joe

Life, by its very nature, is filled with storms. In more than one Biblical account, we hear about Jesus calming a storm. Today's Gospel from St. Mark reports one of these incidents. Jesus is asleep in a boat carrying the Apostles across the Sea of Galilee.

Presumably, the storm was raging and was loud, but the Lord does not awaken. We might also imagine that the Apostles are yelling and making noise in an effort to combat the terrible weather, but that does not awaken Jesus. Certainly water, in rain and waves, is splashing on and into the boat, but He continues to sleep. However, when they call to Him, "Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?" Jesus wakes up immediately and responds to the problem.

In the midst of the storms of our lives, we need to take the time to turn to God and ask for help. The Lord will respond. When He does, we need to be prepared for the same question He poses to His Apostles, "Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?" We must think of the many times in our lives when the Lord has blessed us, and kept us. Our faithful response to this love should be increased trust, and a sense of stewardship of the gifts with which we have been blessed. Copyright © 2010 www.THECATHOLICSTEWARD.com

A Thought From St. Francis De Sales

Mount Calvary is the mount of lovers. All love that does not take its origin from the Savior's passion is foolish and perilous. Unhappy is death without the Savior's love; unhappy is love without the Savior's death. Love and death are so mingled in the Savior's passion that we cannot have the one in our heart without the other. Upon Mount Calvary we cannot have life without love, or love without the Redeemer's death.

My vocation is love.

Undie Sunday

Many children begin the school year in need of new undies and socks. This is a way to help them start school with a sense of pride and self-esteem. For the Summer months, we will be collecting NEW children's undies and socks to help needy children, in grades K-8. These items can be placed in collection boxes at the doors of the church, or bring them to Peg in the Parish Office. The underwear and socks will be distributed by Catholic Charities to children in our area. Thank you for your support!

Summer brings with it a see change in our neighborhoods. Suddenly, the streets are alive with joggers and baby strollers, the smells of backyard barbecue, and the drone of lawn mowers. As a Christian steward, have you given thought to your responsibility to your neighborhood? We take seriously the scriptural query, "Who is my neighbor?" but do we ever ask, "But what of my neighborhood?" In our grandparents' era, when many people lived in small towns, and escaped the summer heat by sitting on porches in the muggy evenings, neighborliness came with the territory. Everybody knew who was having a baby, which family was suffering through illness, who had just experienced a death or a wedding. Problems in the neighborhood were shared concerns. Today, in the era of two-parent wage-earners and automatic garage door openers, it's easy to come home after a long day, hit a button and watch the neighborhood disappear as we enter the cocoon of our home. June offers us the opportunity to change that. Do you have a back fence neighbor? Maybe now, when he's out in the yard, is the time to get to know him better. Host a barbecue, or a neighborhood potluck. Invite someone over for an evening iced tea on the patio. If there's a community picnic, be sure to go and introduce yourself around. Invite your pastor over for burgers. Go for a long stroll in the early evening and look at your neighborhood with fresh eyes. Stop to visit with people working on their lawns or in their flower beds.

Today, it's easy to come home after a long day, hit a button and watch the neighborhood disappear as we enter the cocoon of our home.

There's a famous quote: "All politics is local." Do you know who represents your neighborhood on the city council and on the school board? Are you acquainted with your parish council members? The quote could very well have added that most religion is local as well, alive in our parish. The church, and the community, lives and breathes in the neighborhood. Is there a pressing local issue, a speed bump needed or a stop sign missing? Is there a neighborhood clean-up day? Get involved. For the Christian steward, opening our eyes to the people next door, or to the folks sitting next to us in the pew, can be a great project for a sunny summer.
