

16TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

When he disembarked and saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things.

Taking the next step forward:

As we continue to emerge from the pandemic, we will make some changes beginning the first weekend of August which will take us closer to our pre-COVID-19 worship: holy water will return to the stoups (holy water fonts) at the doorways; daily mass will be celebrated in the chapel; hymnals will return to the pews; Plexiglas musician screens will be removed and we will stop livestreaming the Mass. In regards to livestreaming, the production quality (especially the sound) of our livestream is poor so it will not be continued. There are celebrations easily available which are better produced than we could provide. Please be patient as we take this next step with any bobbling which may occur.

The Sanctuary Lamp

This Week's Sanctuary Lamp
Is In Memory of Sharon Davies
Requested by Mom

Today's readings remind us of how our God is compassionate and passionately loves us.

"Woe to the shepherds who mislead and scatter the flock of my pasture, says the Lord." Our First Reading from the prophet Jeremiah addresses false prophets who had misled God's people away from the Lord. The Lord declares that He will restore His people by bringing back those who have gone astray and providing for them new shepherds so that they will "no longer fear and tremble." This reading portrays God's infinite care and concern for our lives. We can see that God is the one who loved us first. Oftentimes, we are like the people who are blind to His goodness and enticed by sin — something we think will make us happy but does not. God is the one who constantly pursues us and gives us opportunities to say "yes" to Him. He wants to win us back, and ultimately, He will make us happy.

So, we must ask ourselves, who or what is blinding us or leading us away from our ultimate happiness? Stop for a moment and name that thing — money, status, a person, career, laziness, addiction, self-image, health, etc. —that could be leading you away from a full and happy relationship with God. As Christian disciples, deep down we really know that our true happiness is God. So, what are we waiting for? Take the leap of faith and allow yourself to radically love God in return. As we begin this new week, let us name the things in our lives that are robbing us of our ultimate happiness, work to let go of them and let us strive to make Jesus our true shepherd by seeking Him in our daily lives.

St. Jane de Chantal wrote the following message to her Sisters in a Visitation Monastery that were having trouble getting along. Her words of Salesian gentleness speak great wisdom to us in these modern times.

“Do your best to gain hearts by kindness.
Treat them freely, cordially and trustfully.
I repeat with all my strength, dear friends,
Be kind to one another,
Respect one another's opinions,
Do not criticize,
And I beg you,
Interpret everything positively.”

-St. Jane de Chantal

A Thought From St. Francis De Sales

Love is the life of our heart. Just as weights give movement to the movable parts of a clock, so love gives to the soul whatever movement it has. All our affections follow our love; when divine love reigns in our hearts, it tames sensual love, reduces it to obedience, and puts under its sway all sensual passions. In sum, the love of God is the saving water of which Our Lord has said, "...whoever drinks the water I give him will never be thirsty."

If you would like to donate flowers on any given weekend, in memory of a loved one, to honor someone, as a congratulations for a special occasion or just because you love flowers, the cost is $60.00. The intention and your name (if you choose) will be printed in the bulletin. Please contact Dave at ext. 129 or email dbusch@saintcecilias.net.

Safe Environment Training Is Mandatory For New Volunteers

The Diocese of Venice is committed to provide a safe environment for children and vulnerable adults. To that end, persons working with children or visiting vulnerable adults are required to be fingerprinted (this process includes a background check) and to receive training in recognizing potential signs of abuse.

For further information, visit the Diocesan website at www.dioceseofvenice.org/safeenvironment.

Report any abuse against minors to the Florida Department of Children and Families at 800-962-2873. To report abuse by Diocesan personnel or volunteers also notify the Diocesan Victims Assistance Coordinator, Susan Benton, at 941-416-6114.

CALLING ALL KHAKIS!

My name is Emily White and I am a member of Bishop Verot High School's Scholar Academy. Through this program we are given the opportunity to give back to our community through a Capstone project. Through my project, The Saving Hand, I will be providing opportunities to help meet the needs of basic human dignity to those less fortunate. I am collecting new or used khaki, black, or navy pants that will be donated to the Salvation Army. You will find me along with bins set up in the back of St. Cecilia's on Sunday, July 25 after the 9:00 AM and 11:00 AM masses!
