BULLETIN INSERTS FOR THE LITURGICAL LIFE OF THE PARISH

BOW DOWN FOR THE BLESSING

You may bow to receive a blessing at the end of Mass. The words asking you to do so have been slightly revised. In the past, the deacon or priest has said words such as these: "Bow your heads and pray for God's blessing." Now, however, you hear this formula: "Bow down for the blessing." The Final Blessing does not always include this invitation. You hear it only when the blessing is extended in one of two ways. In a Solemn Blessing, the priest offers a threefold formula addressed to the people, who answer "Amen" to each part. In a Prayer over the People, the priest addresses God, concluding with the phrase "Through Christ our Lord," which prompts the people to answer "Amen". If either extension is made, you are invited to bow before it, and you receive the usual blessing after it: "May almighty God bless you, the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit." The deacon issues this invitation because he instructs the people concerning their actions, whether to share the Sign of Peace or to be dismissed from the gathering. He may also assign postures such as kneeling, standing, and bowing. In the deacon's absence, the priest performs this function. The revised English translation of the Mass has changed the words to reflect the invitation in Latin, which makes no mention of the head, and instead implies a low bow of the upper part of the body. The third edition of The Roman Missal has removed the permission for the priest or deacon to use other expressions, thus restricting him to one formula: "Bow down for the blessing." Ironically, the rubrics of the Mass never instruct the people to carry out this posture, but the implication of course, is that they do.

(Romans 12:13)

OBLATES OF ST FRANCIS DE SALES

In one of his pamphlets that was later published in a broader collection entitled The Catholic Controversy, Francis de Sales wrote:

"We maintain that we may pray for the faithful departed, and that the prayers and good works of the living greatly relieve them and are profitable to them for this reason: that all those who die in the grace of God – and consequently, in the number of the elect – do not go to Paradise at the very first moment, but many go to Purgatory...from which our prayers and good works can help and serve to deliver them."

"We agree the blood of Our Redeemer is the true purgatory of souls, for in it are cleansed all the souls of the world. Tribulations also are a purgatory, by which our souls are rendered pure, as gold refined in the furnace. It is well known that Baptism in which our sins are washed away can be called a purgatory, as everything can be that serves to purge away our offenses. But in this context we take Purgatory for a place in which after this life the souls which leave this world before they have been perfectly cleansed from the stains they have contracted. And if one would know why this place is called simply Purgatory more than are the other means of purgation above-named, the answer will be, that it is because in that place nothing takes place but the purgation of the stains which remain at the time of departure out of this world, whereas in Baptism, Penance, tribulations and the rest, not only is the soul purged from its imperfections, but it is further enriched with many graces and perfections. And agreeing as to the blood of Our Lord, we fully acknowledge the virtue thereof, that we protest by all our prayers that the purgation of souls – whether in this world or in the other – is made solely by its application." (CC, pp. 353 -354)

Notwithstanding the effects of our prayers and good works on behalf of our dearly departed, Francis de Sales reminds us that at the end of the day it is the life and death of Jesus Christ that purifies our souls, whether in this life or in the next. To that end, whether it's the just or the unjust, whether it's in this world or the next, we are all in the hands of God. Here's hoping that we pray for our faithful departed. Here's hoping that our faithful departed pray for us. All of us could stand to do with a little purgation of one kind or another from time to time!

Safe Environment Training Is Mandatory For New Volunteers

The Diocese of Venice is committed to provide a safe environment for children and vulnerable adults. To that end, persons working with children or visiting vulnerable adults, as well as any volunteer for any ministry, are required to be fingerprinted (this process includes a background check) and to receive training in recognizing potential signs of abuse. The training portion can be done in your home over a PC.

For further information, visit the Diocesan website at www.dioceseofvenice.org/safeenvironment to see what is required before the parish can accept a volunteer into any ministry. Any cost a volunteer incurs to complete these requirements will be fully reimbursed on request. Report any abuse against minors to the Florida Department of Children and Families at 800-962-2873. To report abuse by Diocesan personnel or volunteers also notify the Diocesan Victims Assistance Coordinator, Susan Benton, at (941) 416 - 6114.

Whether you are just passing through the area or looking for a spiritual home, we welcome you to St. Cecilia Catholic Community. We hope you find our worship environment hospitable and prayerful.

People often attend Mass at a parish for months or years without officially registering. Registration here at St. Cecilia is an expression of your commitment to being an active member of our community. Parish registration also simplifies the process with regard to religious education; sponsoring a sacramental candidate; and for the planning and preparation of baptisms, weddings and funerals.

Registration is easy and can be completed at the Parish Office during regular office hours or on our website:

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS®

The Knight's Corner

THE KNIGHTS CORNER

In Loving memory of Father Stanley Joseph Dombrowski, our friend, our priest and our brother Knight. In recognition of Father Stan's service, we acknowledge that without him we would not have a Knight's Council at Saint Cecilia's Parish. Father Stan was our original founding Knight back in March of 2004.

Father Stan, we are eternally grateful for all your blessings. In Jesus's name we pray, amen.

Our Council here at Saint Cecilia meets on the second Tuesday of every month in the Parish Hall at 7:00 PM. New members are always welcome so come see what you have been missing as an adult Catholic Christian.

52 STORIES

Mary Jo Nardello

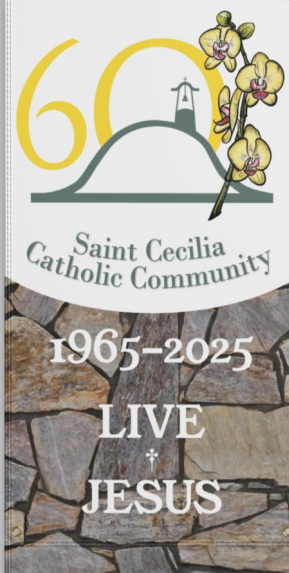

My late husband Bill and I moved from New Jersey to Florida in 2006 and searched for a parish where we felt at home. After trying several churches without success, our neighbor Tony DiLorenzo, who was St. Cecilia's Deacon, recommended we attend Mass there. We immediately felt welcomed by Fr. Stan, Fr. Frank, and Fr. Paul and our parish community. I have remained close to Deacon Tony, and was thrilled when he and his wife joined us for the 60th Anniversary Mass and reception.

After Bill passed away, I began volunteering at St. Cecilia's as suggested by Fr. Frank. Since joining, my parish family has supported me through many of my life's changes, and I truly feel at home with them.

Sanctuary Lamp

The Church prescribes that at least one lamp should continually burn before the Tabernacle, not only as an ornament of the altar, but for the purpose of worship. It is also a mark of honor. It is to remind the faithful of the eternal presence of Christ, who is the "true light which enlighteneth every man" (John 1:9), and is a profession of their love and affection.

If you would like to dedicate the Sanctuary Lamp for one or more weeks, call or stop in the Parish Office.
