BULLETIN INSERTS FOR THE LITURGICAL LIFE OF THE PARISH

Eucharistic Prayer I

The first Eucharistic Prayer is lengthy and ponderous. Its repetitive structure so differs from the other prayers that it can be hard to follow. Yet throughout our history as a Church, the Roman Rite has used no other Eucharistic Prayer more frequently. Inspired by St. Ambrose in the fourth century, it became the only Eucharistic Prayer permissible in the Roman liturgy until the Second Vatican Council. Having no Preface of its own, it accepted one chosen for the feast, season, or occasion. The rest of the prayer remained unchanged since about the seventh century and assumed the title "canon" because it was the only one. Now because we have so many Eucharistic Prayers, it is less accurate to call any of them a "canon."

The prayer balances across the account of the Last Supper. We pray for the living in the first half, for the dead in the second. We ask intercession from some saints in the first half and from others in the second. The prayer never included an explicit appeal to the Holy Spirit, which caused some controversy among the Eastern Churches noted for their devotion to the third person of the Trinity. Consequently, every single Eucharistic Prayer approved since Vatican II includes an explicit "epiclesis"—a request for the Holy Spirit to change the bread and wine into the Body and Blood of Christ.

Although fixed in form, Prayer I offers internal options. The Prefaces change. The lists of the saints may be abbreviated. Many subsections conclude with an optional formula: "Through Christ our Lord. Amen." The first Eucharistic Prayer also permits a special acknowledgment of some feasts such as Christmas, Holy Thursday and Easter.

Before Vatican II, Pope John XXIII authorized one last change to the Roman Canon: he included St. Joseph among the list of saints. A few years after the council, the Memorial Acclamation was added as well. Eucharistic Prayer I is admittedly hard to follow, but its endurance gives testimony to the timelessness of the Catholic faith.

OBLATES OF ST FRANCIS DE SALES

What was it like to live with Jesus as he "grew in size and strength, filled with wisdom and grace?" We don't know much about how the Holy Family lived, and yet the Church encourages us to live as they did. It would be easy to say, "I'm not able to be Jesus, or Mary, or Joseph." The truth is: we are able to be like Jesus. We are baptized and we share the life of Jesus by grace. If we remember each day who we are by our baptism and ask God for the grace we need for the day and accept it, then we can live like the Holy Family.

Today's scripture readings can help us to understand what that will mean. In today's second reading, St. Paul offers us a model for good family relationships.

Because God has chosen us and loved us, we are called to live in His love. God's love in us will take many forms in our living together:

- living what St. Francis de Sales calls the "little virtues" gives a flavor to how we live with one another; showing heartfelt mercy, kindness, humility and meekness never grows old-fashioned.
- at other times, when our own idiosyncrasies, or those of others, show themselves, patience can lead us to "bear with one another lovingly."
- even with the best of intentions, we can offend others or others can offend us. Remembering that the Lord has forgiven us often can help us to forgive one another from the heart.

Paul encourage us to wear love as an encompassing garment that perfects all the other virtues we try to practice. When we have learned to accept Jesus' gift of peace in our own hearts, then we will want to share that peace with each other in any way we can. Thankfulness will lead us to live peacefully. Everything we say and do can be marked by our thankfulness. In this way, Jesus comes alive in us and through us He can touch everyone we live with.

All of us have lived long enough to know the personal effort it takes each day to let Jesus live in us. That's why it's important for us to come and be fed often at Eucharist and rededicate ourselves to living Jesus each day.

May our celebration of the Holy Family today be a gentle reminder that we too grow each day. We can grow in wisdom, knowledge and grace, as Jesus did. May our conscious efforts to grow today fill us with wisdom and grace. May we bring the love and peace of Jesus to all we meet, especially at home.

Safe Environment Training Is Mandatory For New Volunteers

The Diocese of Venice is committed to provide a safe environment for children and vulnerable adults. To that end, persons working with children or visiting vulnerable adults, as well as any volunteer for any ministry, are required to be fingerprinted (this process includes a background check) and to receive training in recognizing potential signs of abuse. The training portion can be done in your home over a PC.

For further information, visit the Diocesan website at www.dioceseofvenice.org/safeenvironment to see what is required before the parish can accept a volunteer into any ministry. Any cost a volunteer incurs to complete these requirements will be fully reimbursed on request. Report any abuse against minors to the Florida Department of Children and Families at 800-962-2873. To report abuse by Diocesan personnel or volunteers also notify the Diocesan Victims Assistance Coordinator, Susan Benton, at (941) 416 - 6114.

Whether you are just passing through the area or looking for a spiritual home, we welcome you to St. Cecilia Catholic Community. We hope you find our worship environment hospitable and prayerful.

People often attend Mass at a parish for months or years without officially registering. Registration here at St. Cecilia is an expression of your commitment to being an active member of our community. Parish registration also simplifies the process with regard to religious education; sponsoring a sacramental candidate; and for the planning and preparation of baptisms, weddings and funerals.

Registration is easy and can be completed at the Parish Office during regular office hours or on our website:

[Registration form \(saintcecilias.org\)](http://Registration form (saintcecilias.org))

Welcome our New Parishioners:

Gina M. Dillon

These days everyone is thinking about resolutions for this New Year. Here is a paraphrase of the Prayer of St. Francis that in this parish family we might grow as the instruments of the Lord's presence as part of our New Year's resolutions.

"Lord, make our parish the instrument of your presence. Help us to depend not on collections and committees but on a lively faith. Keep us open to build bridges between people, and not isolate into factions. Guide us to find words that encourage and affirm rather than criticize or belittle. Give us the sensitivity to listen to the needs and hurts of others and not to react with cynicism or selfishness. For we believe that it is ours to build community where there is isolation, To proclaim gospel wholeness where there is brokenness, And to replace the shallow promises made by our world with the promise and the presence of the Risen Lord."

52 Stories

Fr. Paul Dechant

In the early 1980s the late Fr. John ("Jack") Doyle, OSFS, was here from SW Africa where he had served as a missionary and teacher for many years and was visiting his brother, a Franciscan priest, in the Tampa/St. Pete area. At a chance encounter with the bishop of St. Petersburg, when the bishop remarked he was looking for a religious order to staff a high school in the area, Fr. Jack replied: "Why don't you ask my community?" The bishop did and the Oblates said yes and so the Oblates were preparing to staff a school further north when the Franciscan Sisters of Allegany, NY, let the bishop know they would have to be leaving their ministry at Bishop Verot High School here in Fort Myers. It seemed a good fit for the Oblates to staff both Bishop Verot High School and the adjacent parish of St. Cecilia and so in 1982 the Oblates arrived with Fr. Bill Keech becoming the first Oblate pastor at St. Cecilia.

In 2001 Fr. Tom Murphy was going to be reassigned and his parochial vicar, Fr. Stan Domrowski, was going to succeed him as pastor at St. Cecilia and I was asked to move from a parish in Vienna, VA, to come and be his parochial vicar. Since both Stan and Jack Doyle (who was a retired priest in residence at St. Cecilia at that point) were willing to welcome not only me but my black labrador, Shadow, I agreed. Shadow and I arrived one night in late June during a deluge from a tropical storm. Shadow had to make a big adjustment of not being able to leap into any nearby body of water (because of potential alligators) but learned to love swimming in the Gulf of Mexico. Four years later I was looking at going with Shadow to St. Charles Parish in Montecarlo, Monaco, as a parochial vicar and Fr. Frank Hanlon came down on a trial basis to see if he could adjust and survive the summer heat and humidity of Florida. Fr. Frank stayed and succeeded me as parochial vicar (20 year so far!) and Shadow and I left, not for Monaco, but for Greensboro, NC.

From NC I went to another parish in VA and then as pastor of a parish in Kernersville, NC, for ten years. Fr. Stan kept asking me when I was going to come back to St. Cecilia and succeed him as pastor of St. Cecilia. After 10 years as pastor in Kernersville I was granted a yearlong sabbatical and walked the Camino de Santiago in Northern Spain and studied American Sign Language (ASL) and happily returned to the wonderful community here at St. Cecilia. The area certainly had grown and many of the children I had baptized were now in college but quite a few parishioners still remembered Shadow (Shadow died in 2011) and some of them me! :) Fr. Stan certainly was more active in his retirement than I hope to be, helping out here at St. Cecilia and also at Our Lady of Light in Estero, St. Ann in Naples, and St. William in Naples. His unexpected death in October has left a hole in our hearts.

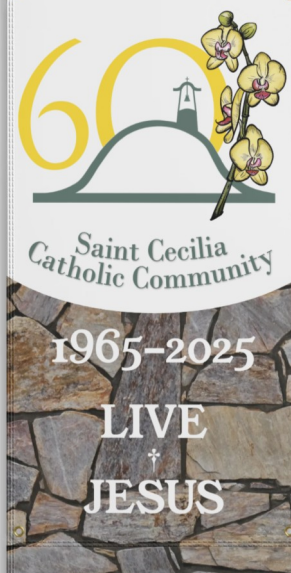

The Oblates who have served here at St. Cecilia always enjoyed being here, ministering to this vibrant community and I have been happy to have returned here and been your pastor these last five and a half years. As our 60th anniversary celebration winds down we give thanks for the blessings the parish has received and been. As we pray weekly in our parish prayer, "we ask God's continued grace and blessing as we try to 'Live Jesus' and to see more clearly His image in all people" and seek to reprint the Gospel by the way we live our lives as a Catholic Community. May God be blessed.

Thank you to the wonderful people who helped decorate our church for Christmas. Your dedication and hard work are much appreciated.

May the newborn Savior bless you and your families throughout the New Year.

Thank you!
