Purification Prayer

Whenever the priest purifies the vessels after Communion, he says a particular prayer quietly. It is one of the parts of the Mass that is not to be spoken aloud, so it concerns the priest more than the people, but it serves as a reminder of the holiness of the Communion that everyone shares. The first appearance of this prayer is in the Veronese Sacramentary, a collection thought to contain the prayers in use for Mass in Rome in the late sixth century. It has remained almost completely unchanged ever since. Today it is still assigned to the priest, but others could pray it profitably.

The text, as revised in 2008, goes like this: "What has passed our lips as food, O Lord, may we possess in purity of heart, that what has been given to us in time may be our healing for eternity." The prayer recognizes the holiness of the crumbs and droplets that remain after Communion in the sacred vessels and the purity of heart required to receive them. The priest prays that his inadequacies may be healed for eternity as he receives these heavenly gifts at this moment in time. It is a beautiful prayer that shimmers with our beliefs in the real presence of the Eucharist, the promise of eternal life, the honesty of human failure, and the mercy of God.

After Communion or after Mass, when the priest takes up the corporal in one hand, sweeps the crumbs from the paten into the chalice, pours in some water, and swallows the contents, he says this prayer. God purifies the priest, as the priest purifies the vessels.

Pope Leo XIV Prayer Intention

JANUARY 2026

For prayer with the Word of God.
Let us pray that praying with the Word of God be nourishment for our lives and a source of hope in our communities, helping us to build a more fraternal and missionary Church.

OBLATES OF ST FRANCIS DE SALES

Today we celebrate the Baptism of Jesus. This event marks the beginning of his ministry. St. Francis de Sales notes that God also calls us to service even with our flawed natures:

Our Savior's unfathomable ways of calling us to His service are so lovely and varied. When we have a firm and steadfast determination to want to serve God in the way and place where God calls us, we then have a true vocation.

While we are firm in our perseverance to serve God, we still commit faults. We may also hesitate in our resolve to use the means given us to serve God. We are all at the mercy of our feelings and emotions, subject to changes and ups and downs. We are not to worry if we sometimes experience feelings of distaste and discouragement in responding to our call to serve God. It is normal to experience these ups and downs. Even though we are not exceedingly virtuous, we are still fit for God's service. Yet, we must stand firm in the midst of changing moods. Some virtues for the most part can only be practiced amid difficulty. It is our will - not our feelings and emotions - that must judge the firmness and steadfastness of our commitment to love as God desires us to love. It is this struggle of the will to persevere that determines our commitment to serve God.

A good musician has the habit of testing the strings of his instrument from time to time to see if they need tightening or loosening in order to render the tone in perfect harmony. We too at times need to examine and consider all the affections of our soul to see if they are in tune with the wishes and commands of Our Savior. Let us strengthen our fervor, by reaffirming often our commitment to be God's children who are called to love divinely. Live courageously and faithfully to the original stirring of your heart to serve God, and you will be happy.

Safe Environment Training Is Mandatory For New Volunteers

The Diocese of Venice is committed to provide a safe environment for children and vulnerable adults. To that end, persons working with children or visiting vulnerable adults, as well as any volunteer for any ministry, are required to be fingerprinted (this process includes a background check) and to receive training in recognizing potential signs of abuse. The training portion can be done in your home over a PC.

For further information, visit the Diocesan website at www.dioceseofvenice.org/safeenvironment to see what is required before the parish can accept a volunteer into any ministry. Any cost a volunteer incurs to complete these requirements will be fully reimbursed on request. Report any abuse against minors to the Florida Department of Children and Families at 800-962-2873. To report abuse by Diocesan personnel or volunteers also notify the Diocesan Victims Assistance Coordinator, Susan Benton, at (941) 416 - 6114.

Whether you are just passing through the area or looking for a spiritual home, we welcome you to St. Cecilia Catholic Community. We hope you find our worship environment hospitable and prayerful.

People often attend Mass at a parish for months or years without officially registering. Registration here at St. Cecilia is an expression of your commitment to being an active member of our community. Parish registration also simplifies the process with regard to religious education; sponsoring a sacramental candidate; and for the planning and preparation of baptisms, weddings and funerals.

Registration is easy and can be completed at the Parish Office during regular office hours or on our website:

The Knight's Corner

Our Council members are saddened to acknowledge the passing of long time Brother Knight Alfred F. Del Rossi III. Al joined the Knights of Columbus June 1, 1968 as a first degree knight. He achieved second degree on April 1, 1981 and third degree on February 15, 2013. Al is survived by his wife Donna and brother Damon. Al funeral mass was held at Saint Cecilia on Saturday December 12th with a reception following in the Parish Hall.

Attending the mass was the 4th Degree Color Corps and others serving at the mass to honor Al were Vince Soral, James Williams, Rob Saunders, Esther Kiesel, Jim DeFee, Tom Tarantelli, Charles DePeri, Jim Bolinger and Steve Jansen.

The Knights of Columbus were founded by the Blessed Father Michael J. McGivney to help widows and orphans. In that spirit our Council raised $1,100 in donations to help Donna through these difficult times.

Our Council here at Saint Cecilia meets on the second Tuesday of every month in the Parish Hall at 7:00 PM. New members are always welcome so come see what you have been missing as an adult Catholic Christian.
