SAFE ENVIRONMENT TRAINING

Mandatory For New Volunteers

The Diocese of Venice is committed to provide a safe environment for children and vulnerable adults. To that end, persons working with children or visiting vulnerable adults, as well as any volunteer for any ministry, are required to be finger printed (this process includes a background check) and to receive training in recognizing potential signs of abuse. The training portion can be done in your home over a PC.

For further information, visit the Diocesan website at www.dioceseofvenice.org/safeenvironment to see what is required before the parish can accept a volunteer into any ministry. Any cost a volunteer incurs to complete these requirements will be fully reimbursed on request. Report any abuse against minors to the Florida Department of Children and Families at 800-962-2873. To report abuse by Diocesan personnel or volunteers also notify the Diocesan Victims Assistance Coordinator, Susan Benton, at (941) 416-6114.

OBLATES OF ST FRANCIS DE SALES

Today, Jesus, as He raises Lazarus from the dead, urges us to live and believe in Him. St. Francis de Sales expands on what it means to live in the Spirit of Jesus:

Jesus desires to give life to those who are dead to attest to God's love for us. He speaks to those who are deadened by sin to affirm that all can hear the voice of God through the Spirit. The Spirit gently awakens us to a new human life. No matter how weakened our hearts may be by sin, the Spirit strengthens them with an invigorating and enlivening holy love. The Holy Spirit is like a fountain of living water that flows into every part of our hearts so as to spread its divine love there.

All our affections follow love. In love we desire, rejoice, hope and despair, fear, hate, avoid things, feel sad, grow angry, and exult. Love is the foundation of our life lived in the Spirit of Jesus. When divine love reigns in our hearts, it transforms all other affections we have chosen so that we may live, walk, and work in the Spirit of Jesus. The Spirit has no wish to enter our hearts without our permission. The Spirit will flood us with divine love only with our cooperation. So what must we do to nourish a spirit where the Spirit of Jesus can dwell? When reason guides our appetites, feelings and emotions, we are then living in the "spirit." We live in the "flesh" when our appetites, feelings and emotions determine our actions. Let us unambiguously choose a life in the spirit.

If a sick man takes only part of his required medicine, it partly heals him. So also, with divine love, to the extent we consent to embrace it, the Spirit floods us with sacred love. Thus, we must not only receive God's love at our heart's door, but also into our heart's consent. We must nurture this love guided by holy reason and wisdom. When steeped with the love of the Spirit, our hearts produce sacred actions that tend toward immortal glory. Let us consent to a new human life in the Spirit of Jesus who raises us to eternal glory.

(Adapted from the Treatise on the Love of God)

Breath, Spirit and Peace

“The Lord God formed the man out of the dust of the ground and blew into his nostrils the breath of life, and the man became a living being”
— Genesis 2:7

As you read these familiar words, I invite you quietly to bring attention to your own breath. It is this very “breath of life” that sustains and gives life to our mortal bodies at every moment of our lives.

We all live busy lives, and that pace of life keeps us suspended on the surface of our consciousness, reacting to what we perceive, with very little bandwidth left to fathom the deeper levels of our spirits. What we need is a prayer that brings us back to the presence of God just when our minds seem to have wandered to the farthest point of the circumference of our being. God does not leave us, but we certainly can be “outside” of ourselves all too often. How can we come home to ourselves and return to the presence of God who dwells within us at every moment?

I will share with you the practice that has become an anchor for my awareness in the past year. It is simply called the “breath prayer” or the “active prayer.” It is an updated form of a classic Christian practice known as the “Jesus Prayer,” which has been embraced by many since the early centuries of Christianity. It is a way of living out the advice of St. Paul, “to pray without ceasing.” The prayer itself is quite simple. I choose a short, seven to nine syllable prayer phrase that I say over and over again in connection with my breathing. The purpose of this repetition is to allow the prayer to permeate the subconscious. As this happens, the old commentaries that play like tapes in our mind, are gradually erased and the breath prayer takes their place. In upsetting situations, when commentaries arise such as “Why is this happening to me?”, “I can’t believe he said that,” etc., are replaced by this prayer, creating a moment of awareness before the commentaries engage our negative emotions, so that we can decide how to respond, instead of reacting from our emotional programs.

This is more than a psychological effect, but a way of letting the Spirit of God pray in us. The very word “breath” comes from the same root word for “spirit.” With faith’s keen perception, we can experience the presence of the Spirit as our breath. The breath of life becomes the Spirit praying in us.

Last year, when introduced to this practice, I prayerfully considered what phrase I might use, and immediately the antiphon for Psalm 131 came to mind: “In You, O Lord, I have found my peace.” I put this prayer into practice, inhaling on the phrase “In You, O Lord,” and exhaling on the phrase, “I have found my peace.” Little by little over the months that followed, this prayer worked its way into my mind and heart. Repetition took some effort in the beginning (taping the prayer to my computer, writing it in my notebook...whatever it took!). As it gradually seeped into my whole being, this prayer not only resonated within me; it took on a life of its own, as it actualized in my day-to-day activities the peace for which I prayed.

Over a year later, I can hardly recount all the times that this prayer has gently surfaced within me when I needed it most. My favorite instance of experiencing the fruit of this prayer came about in a humorous and memorable way: Last spring, I arrived at one of our Oblate houses for a few days’ visit, and within minutes found myself unclogging a toilet in the guest bathroom! As I stood there (with plunger in hand!), what thought came to my mind? “In You, O Lord, I have found my peace!” More than once, I have woken up during the night with this prayer already in my breathing without needing to think about it. I realized that I was no longer praying the prayer; it was “praying” me.

My hope is that sharing this prayer and experience with you will encourage you to seek out a way of grounding yourself in God’s presence on a regular basis so that you can experience how that presence gradually shapes your thoughts, attitudes, words, and actions. In your own way, how can you “pray without ceasing”?

Knights of Columbus

THE KNIGHTS CORNER

The Knights of Columbus Florida State Council has long been a steadfast and influential voice in defense of human life. Through the generosity and commitment of our Florida Knights, we have placed more than 135 ultrasound machines in pregnancy care centers throughout the State of Florida. These machines allow expectant mothers to see their unborn children and, in many cases, make the life-affirming decision to carry their babies to full term.

The impact of this work is significant. According to the most recent data from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), abortion rates have declined by more than 36 percent since 1991. While many factors contribute to this decline, we firmly believe that the Florida State Council's commitment to the Ultrasound Initiative, along with programs such as Walk for Life and Laps for Life, has played an important role in fostering a Culture throughout our State.

Today our Council respectfully ask for your financial support to help the Florida State Council continue and expand these critical initiatives. Your donation directly to supports pregnancy care centers in Florida, strengthens statewide pro-life programs, and ensures that order is still a visible and compassionate witness to the sanctity of every human life.

Our mission is rooted in the vision of our founder, Blessed Father Michael J. McGivney, who more than 135 years ago united a small group of Catholic men in New Haven, Connecticut, to serve those in need. Today that vision is carried forward by more than 55,000 Knights in the Florida Jurisdiction, united in charity, unity, and fraternity.

Our Council here at Saint Cecilia meets on the second Tuesday of every month in the Parish Hall at 7:00 PM. New members are always welcome so come see what you have been missing as an adult Catholic Christian.
