WELCOME

Whether you are just passing through the area or looking for a spiritual home, we welcome you to St. Cecilia Catholic Community. We hope you find our worship environment hospitable and prayerful.

People often attend Mass at a parish for months or years without officially registering. Registration here at St. Cecilia is an expression of your commitment to being an active member of our community. Parish registration allows for you to receive timely and essential communications through mail and our weekly Parish Email Update. Registrations also simplifies the process with regard to religious education; sponsoring a sacramental candidate; and for the planning and preparation of baptisms, weddings and funerals and the reception of Sacraments for homebounds such as Eucharist and Anointing. Seasonal Parishioners are also welcomed to Register and have dual membership.

Registration is easy and can be completed at the Parish Office during regular office hours or on our website: Registration form (saintcecilias.org)

MOTHER'S DAY BLESSING

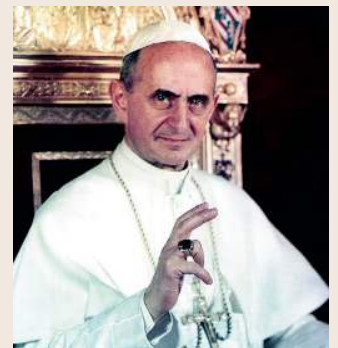

Heavenly Father, we ask your blessing on all mothers. Bless them with strength to continue to care for their children with the same bold selflessness Mary showed Jesus. Help them feel our gratitude and truly know their impact. May we honor them today and on all days as vessels of Your love.
In Your name we pray.
Amen.

TEACHINGS FROM THE MAGISTERIUM

"People must obviously unite their efforts to secure at least a minimum of relief, well-being, security and justice, necessary for happiness, for the many peoples deprived of them. Such solidarity is already the work of God, it corresponds to Christ's commandment. Already it secures peace, restores hope, strength, communion, and gives access to joy, for the one who gives as for the one who receives, for it is more blessed to give than to receive."

Reflecting on Mary's Love and the Gift of Catholic Motherhood

Mother's Day is a time to honor the women who have shaped our lives, offering love, guidance, and unwavering faith. For Catholics, this celebration carries a deeper spiritual significance, as we look to the ultimate example of motherhood – the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Mary, the mother of Jesus, stands as the epitome of selfless love and profound faith. From her fiat – her 'yes' to God – to her steadfast presence at the foot of the Cross, Mary exemplifies the strength, courage, and grace that every mother is called to emulate. This Mother's Day, we reflect on the powerful witness of Mary and the countless Catholic mothers who echo her virtues.

Catholic tradition is rich with prayers, devotions, and feast days that celebrate motherhood. As we gather to honor our mothers, let us not forget to pray for those who are struggling – mothers who grieve the loss of a child, those facing the heartache of infertility, and those who have sacrificed everything to provide for their children.

In a special way, let us also remember spiritual mothers – women who, like Mary, nurture faith in the hearts of those they encounter. From religious sisters to godmothers and teachers, these women carry the torch of faith, inspiring others to draw closer to Christ.

On this Mother's Day, may we lift our prayers to Mary, asking her to intercede for all mothers, that they may be blessed with the grace, wisdom, and strength to continue their sacred vocation of love. And as we honor them, let us also remember to express our gratitude for the gift of their presence in our lives, for as Mary teaches us, motherhood is a path to holiness, a vocation that brings us closer to the heart of God.

The Eucharist

The Holy Eucharist is the most important of the seven sacraments because, in this and in no other sacrament, we receive the very body and blood, soul and divinity of Jesus Christ. Innumerable, precious graces come to us through the reception of Holy Communion.

Communion is an intimate encounter with Christ in which we sacramentally receive Christ into our bodies, that we may be more completely assimilated into his. "The Eucharist builds the Church" (Redemptor Hominis 20), as Pope John Paul II said. It deepens unity with the Church, more fully assimilating us into Christ.

The Eucharist also strengthens the individual because in it Jesus himself, the Word made flesh, forgives our venial sins and gives us the strength to resist mortal sin. It is also the very channel of eternal life: Jesus himself.

SAFE ENVIRONMENT TRAINING

Mandatory For New Volunteers

The Diocese of Venice is committed to provide a safe environment for children and vulnerable adults. To that end, persons working with children or visiting vulnerable adults, as well as any volunteer for any ministry, are required to be finger printed (this process includes a background check) and to receive training in recognizing potential signs of abuse. The training portion can be done in your home over a PC.

For further information, visit the Diocesan website at www.dioceseofvenice.org/safeenvironment to see what is required before the parish can accept a volunteer into any ministry. Any cost a volunteer incurs to complete these requirements will be fully reimbursed on request. Report any abuse against minors to the Florida Department of Children and Families at 800-962-2873. To report abuse by Diocesan personnel or volunteers also notify the Diocesan Victims Assistance Coordinator, Susan Benton, at (941) 416-6114.

OBLATES OF ST FRANCIS DE SALES

Today's readings remind us that to love Jesus is to keep His word and to think, feel and act in accordance with His word. St. Francis de Sales stresses that we learn to keep His word and live Jesus through a life of prayer and virtue.

Prayer places our mind in the brilliance of God's light and exposes our will to the warmth of God's love. Prayer is a stream of holy water that makes the plants of our good desires grow green and flourish. Each day set aside some time to meditate. If possible, meditate early in the morning, when your mind is less distracted and fresher after a night's rest. To live Jesus, ask God to help you to pray from your heart.

When you meditate on Jesus' life, you will learn his ways and form your actions after the pattern of his life. Gradually accustom yourself to pass with ease and tranquility from prayer to your various duties even though your duties appear far different from the affections you received in prayer. The lawyer must be able to pass from prayer to pleading cases, the merchant to commerce, and the parent to the care of children. Out of our meditation experience must flow our daily actions, which involve a life of virtue.

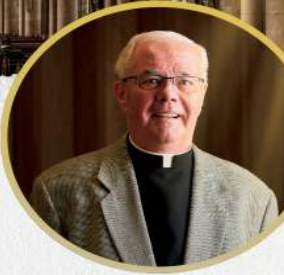

Each person must practice in a special manner the virtues needed for the kind of life he or she is called to. In practicing the virtues, we should prefer the one most conformable to our duties rather than the one most agreeable to our taste. As a rule, comets seem bigger than stars because comets are closer to us. Hence, comets seem bigger to us. Similarly, we esteem certain virtues merely because they appear greater to us. Yet, we must choose the virtues needed to counteract our habitual failings and weaknesses so as to advance in holy love. For instance, if assaulted by anger practice gentleness, no matter how small this virtuous act may seem. True virtue has no limits. If we act out of reverence for God and in good faith, God will raise us up to heights that are truly great so that we may live Jesus even when we suffer for doing what is good.

Of course, the Good News in today's Gospel is that we are not on our own – we are not left to our own devices – in our attempts to Live + Jesus. We have Christ's promise of the help, the guidance and the companionship of the Holy Spirit!

"Never has He found a ciborium, a vase of gold more precious, or more pure than Mary's womb. Mary's adoration rejoiced Him more than that of all the angels. "The Lord hath placed His tabernacle in the sun," says the Psalmist. That sun is Mary's heart ... "

A PRAYER TO OUR LADY

O Mary, teach us the life of adoration!

Teach us to find, as thou didst, all mysteries and all graces in the Eucharist, to live the Gospel over again, and to read it in the Eucharistic Life of Jesus!

Remember, Lady of the Most Blessed Sacrament, that thou art the Mother of all adorers of the Holy Eucharist.
