TEACHINGS FROM THE MAGISTERIUM

"The Church has received the Eucharist from Christ her Lord not as one gift – however precious – among so many others, but as the gift par excellence, for it is the gift of himself, of his person in his sacred humanity, as well as the gift of his saving work. Nor does it remain confined to the past, since "all that Christ is – all that he did and suffered for all men – participates in the divine eternity, and so transcends all times".

A MIGHTY GOD

BY: TOM SCHMIDT

The first reading says that God's might is the basis for divine justice. We might take this to mean that God uses mighty power to punish sinners, in the legal sense of justice. But the reading also talks about God's lenience and clemency. So maybe God's power is so great that punishment is not necessary. Sinners can be forgiven. After all, we usually punish those we fear will hurt us again. But God is too powerful to be injured by our sins. God can afford to wait for us to repent. That is the point of the parable of the wheat and the weeds.

We are used to expecting swift justice. We like TV shows in which the bad guy is caught and convicted in an hour. The idea of God giving sinners until the end of time to repent is almost un-American—at least, until we realize that we are sinners, too. “But my sins are so minor.” Even the smallest sin says that we know better than God what is right. Yet God is still willing to wait for all of us to repent.

On the other hand, we hear people who say they don't deserve to be forgiven. True, but no one could ever deserve forgiveness. That is the wonder of God's love, that God's Son came to die for sinners, even before we sinned. As we experience that forgiveness, we learn the depth of God's love for us. Hopefully, we also learn to share that love with others.

Of course, that means that we also share forgiveness with others. If God waits till “the end of the age” before burning the weeds, shouldn't we be willing to forgive those who hurt us? The Church encourages us to celebrate the sacrament of reconciliation often. Many people today wait till they have a lot of sins, or at least one whopper, to confess. But the more often we go, the more we are reminded of God's love and forgiveness. Those reminders can help us to be more willing to show mercy ourselves. Let us ask God for the courage to seek forgiveness and the strength to forgive.

SAFE ENVIRONMENT TRAINING

Mandatory For New Volunteers

The Diocese of Venice is committed to provide a safe environment for children and vulnerable adults. To that end, persons working with children or visiting vulnerable adults, as well as any volunteer for any ministry, are required to be finger printed (this process includes a background check) and to receive training in recognizing potential signs of abuse. The training portion can be done in your home over a PC.

For further information, visit the Diocesan website at www.dioceseofvenice.org/safeenvironment to see what is required before the parish can accept a volunteer into any ministry. Any cost a volunteer incurs to complete these requirements will be fully reimbursed on request. Report any abuse against minors to the Florida Department of Children and Families at 800-962-2873. To report abuse by Diocesan personnel or volunteers, notify the Diocesan Victims Assistance Coordinator, Susan Benton, at (941) 416-6114.

PATIENT WAITING

BY: KATE TALIAFERRO

The Kingdom of Heaven is like a wheat field, like a mustard seed, like yeast. What do all these have in common? Time. Each requires patience in order for their work to be complete.

A sower plants a wheat field and an enemy sows weeds shortly after. The sower doesn't know about this unhappy circumstance until the seeds begin to grow and show themselves for what they are. Rather than showing displeasure, the sower chooses patience. He tells his servants to wait for the crop to be full grown before handling the problem of the weeds. His patience doesn't change the situation, but it does create the space for the seeds to do their work.

The same patience is needed for mustard seeds. Seeds need time to germinate, often at least a week. For that week it looks like the sower has nothing to show for the work he has done. The soil just sits there, all the work is happening below the surface away from curious eyes. If the sower doesn't wait and digs up the seeds to see if they are growing, they will die.

Yeast works in a similar way. It's so small we cannot see it at work. But step away from the flour, water, and salt for a few hours and the evidence will be plain that a great change has taken place.

The Kingdom of Heaven is just like the wheat field, the seed, the yeast. It is a present reality and at the same time is developing, anticipating, growing. We live in the midst of the Kingdom of God and we still have work to do to bring about the Kingdom of God.

We usually talk about the end times and the fulfillment of the Kingdom during the close of the liturgical year and into Advent. But I think it's so good that the Church brings it to our attention today, right in the middle of Ordinary Time. The Kingdom of Heaven is here, even if here is on vacation. The Kingdom of Heaven is here even when our usual routines and schedules are upside down. No matter what sort of Ordinary Time we are experiencing, the Kingdom of Heaven is in the midst of it.

We can learn so much about God from the sower. He doesn't get anxious or overreact when he finds out about the weeds in his carefully planted field. He doesn't say to scrap the whole project or abandon it to the birds. He continues to care and tend for the field as he intended to, giving the wheat the chance to be stronger than the weeds. As baptized children of God, we receive this same care and love. We are accompanied and cherished by God, even when the weeds try to grow tall all around us.

THE KNIGHT'S CORNER

On June 4, 2026, Supreme Knight Patrick E. Kelly writes:

"I write today to recognize Saint Cecilia Council 13483's support of women and children through the Knights of Columbus Aid and Support After Pregnancy (ASAP) Program.

For more than 50 Years, brother Knights have proudly taken action to build a culture of life North America and beyond. On the local, state, national and international levels, our members have organized, led and taken part in countless initiatives, as part of the fight for life.

Saint Cecilis's efforts today through ASAP are a crucial part of our Order's continued work to defend the unborn and the vocation of motherhood. Thanks to your council's generosity, women facing fear and uncertainty will receive the help they need to choose life. Together, our brother Knights are offering signs of hope that the sanctity of all human life will be affirmed in our world.

Enclosed with this letter you will find a $400 check representing the Supreme Council's contribution to your work as part of ASAP. Please present the check to this life-saving organization as soon as you are able.

Brothers, please convey my heartfelt thanks to all the members of Council 13483 for their participation in ASAP and support of the most marginalized in our society.

With gratitude for your efforts and dedication to the cause of life, I am

Faternally,

Patrick E. Kelly, Supreme Knight"

Our Council here at Saint Cecilia meets on the second Tuesday of every month in the Parish Hall at 7:00 PM. New members are always welcome, so come see what you have been missing as an adult Catholic Christian
