WELCOME

Whether you are just passing through the area or looking for a spiritual home, we welcome you to St. Cecilia Catholic Community. We hope you find our worship environment hospitable and prayerful.

People often attend Mass at a parish for months or years without officially registering. Registration here at St. Cecilia is an expression of your commitment to being an active member of our community. Parish registration allows for you to receive timely and essential communications through mail and our weekly Parish Email Update. Registrations also simplifies the process regarding religious education, sponsoring a sacramental candidate, and for the planning and preparation of baptisms, weddings, funerals and the reception of Sacraments for the homebound such as Eucharist and Anointing. Seasonal Parishioners are also welcomed to Register and have dual membership.

Registration is easy and can be completed at the Parish Office during regular office hours or on our website: Registration form (saintcecilias.org)

Teachings from the Magisterium

"We need constantly to contemplate the mystery of mercy. It is a wellspring of joy, serenity, and peace. Our salvation depends on it. Mercy: the word reveals the very mystery of the Most Holy Trinity. Mercy: the ultimate and supreme act by which God comes to meet us."

Walking with Christ, leaving a mark in the world

Excerpt By: Lucas Buch

"Walking with Christ, leaving a mark on the world Jesus' look will help us react with hope when we are faced with our own falls, mistakes, and mediocrity. It is not just about being good ourselves. God is counting on us to change the world and fill it with his Love. This call is also contained in Christ's loving look. "You might say to me, 'Father, but I have my limits, I am a sinner, what can I do?' When the Lord calls us he doesn't worry about what we are, what we have been, or what we have done or not done. Quite the opposite. When he calls us, he is thinking about everything we have to give, all the love we are capable of spreading. His bets are on the future, on tomorrow. Jesus is pointing you towards the future, never to the museum."

Our Lord's look is a look of Love that always affirms the person and says, "How good it is that you exist! How wonderful to have you here with me!" At the same time, while knowing us perfectly, He counts on us. To discover God's affirming look is the best way to recover our hope and once again feel drawn upwards, towards Love, and then to bring this Love to the whole world. Here is our firmest security: Christ died for me because He saw it worthwhile to do so. Christ who really knows me, has confidence in me. As the Apostle exclaimed: If God is for us, who is against us? He who did not withhold his own Son, but gave him up for all of us, will he not with him also give us everything else? (Rom 8: 31-32).

There is a lovely song that mountain climbers sing as they climb. It goes like this: 'In climbing it doesn't matter if we stumble and fall, as long as we get up again.'" On our feet, cheerful, confident, going forward with the mission of lighting up "all the ways of the earth with the fire of Christ that you carry in your heart."

TRAINING WILL BE PROVIDED

Contact Elvia Arana (239) 936-3635 Ext. 116

SAFE ENVIRONMENT TRAINING

Mandatory For New Volunteers

The Diocese of Venice is committed to provide a safe environment for children and vulnerable adults. To that end, persons working with children or visiting vulnerable adults, as well as any volunteer for any ministry, are required to be finger printed (this process includes a background check) and to receive training in recognizing potential signs of abuse. The training portion can be done in your home over a PC.

For further information, visit the Diocesan website at www.dioceseofvenice.org/safeenvironment to see what is required before the parish can accept a volunteer into any ministry. Any cost a volunteer incurs to complete these requirements will be fully reimbursed on request. Report any abuse against minors to the Florida Department of Children and Families at 800-962-2873. To report abuse by Diocesan personnel or volunteers, notify the Diocesan Victims Assistance Coordinator, Susan Benton, at (941) 416-6114.

WHAT IS SPIRITUALITY ANYWAY?

BY: SR. SALLIE LATKOVICH

Spirituality is a relatively recent addition to our vocabulary, and there are many and differing understandings. For those of us baptized into Christ, I describe spirituality as the particular way the Spirit of God is present in our hearts and souls. The Latin word spirare means to breathe; so I would say that spirituality is the particular way the Spirit of God breathes in us. A caution is that there are other "spirits" roaming our world that are not of God, and thus the spirituality of some may be quite different from our own.

In his letter to the Galatians, Paul sites nine virtues which give evidence of the Spirit: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self control. Other spirits in the world are evidenced in those given to greed, anger, abuse of power, violence, harsh judgment and the like.

In his book, THE HOLY LONGING, Ronald Rolheiser (a priest in the Order of Mary Immaculate) speaks of four non-negotiable essentials of Christian Spirituality:

- 1) Private Prayer and Morality
- 2) Social Justice
- 3) Mellowness of Heart
- 4) Belonging to a Community of Worship.

You may wish to pick up this book, to understand more about these essentials of spirituality, and reflect on your own as you do so. How is the Spirit alive and active in your heart?

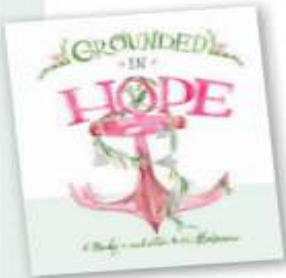

Come as you are.
