Registration here at St. Cecilia is an expression of your commitment to being an active member of our community. Parish registration allows for you to receive timely and essential communications through mail and our weekly Parish Email Update. Registrations also simplifies the process regarding religious education, sponsoring a sacramental candidate, and for the planning and preparation of baptisms, weddings, funerals and the reception of Sacraments for the homebound such as Eucharist and Anointing. Seasonal Parishioners are also welcomed to Register and have dual membership.

Registration is easy and can be completed at the Parish Office during regular office hours or on our website: [Registration form \(saintcecilias.org\)](http://Registration form (saintcecilias.org))

THE KNIGHT'S CORNER

Recently Supreme Knight Patrick Kelly traveled to France to attend Warriors to Lourdes, an annual pilgrimage co-sponsored by the Knights of Columbus and the Archdiocese for the Military Service, USA.

It was also an opportunity to reflect on the 250th Anniversary of the United States of America and the contributions the Knights of Columbus have made to our nation over the years.

Our Council here at Saint Cecilia meets on the second Tuesday of every month in the Parish Hall at 7:00 PM. New members are always welcome so see what you have been missing as an adult Catholic Christian.

The meaning of our Mass responses:

Kyrie, Alleluia, Holy, Hosanna, Lamb of God

By: Sr. Sallie Latkovich, CSJ

Kyrie El Eison

Early in my graduate studies, I took three semesters of Biblical Languages of Hebrew and Greek, and want to share the original meanings of responses we sing at Mass:

Sometimes, the KYRIE is sung instead of the often used “Lord have mercy” that concludes the Penitential Rite at the beginning of Mass. Kyrie El Eison literally means LORD, YOU ARE GOD! And then, of course, Christe El Eison means CHRIST, YOU ARE GOD.

How is it that this phrase is sung in place of the Lord have mercy?

Years ago, Fr. Jim Dunning explained that the Christians awaiting execution in the Roman prisons in the first century were heard to pray: Kyrie El Eison over and over again as a litany. For them, it meant: Lord, you are God, and not the ones who lord it over us. It was a deep expression of their faith.

When we pray/sing Kyrie El Eison, we say: Lord, you are God, and not the gods that may have taken over our lives: gods such as consumerism, racism, sexism, etc. And so, we do ask for mercy, by recognizing the godliness of our God. Kyrie El Eison may be summarized as our proclamation that God is God and we are not; we beg for mercy for the times that we have become God unto ourselves.

The Alleluia

Hallel-el is from the Hebrew, meaning “praise God.” I used to tell the little ones at St. Francis Xavier that it really meant: “Hooray, we’re going to hear good news.” They would sing alleluia at the tops of their lungs and voices. Then one bright little guy said: “No one ever seems that happy in Church.” So let us sing ALLELUIA in full voice, with joy: as we literally sing “praise God” for the good news, the Gospel, we are about to hear.

Holy, Holy, Holy

We have come to equate holiness with someone who is prayerful and seemingly close to God. The word HOLY comes from the Hebrew word “Kadosh.” It literally means “set apart.” Thus, our God is set apart from other gods. Leviticus 19:2 and 1 Peter 1:16 both say: “Be holy for I am holy.” When we sing “Holy, Holy, Holy” we proclaim that our God is indeed set apart from other gods. We sing in praise. And, when we call another person holy, we mean the same: they are set apart because of their deep faith.

Hosanna

In Hebrew, “hosanna” translates to “please save us” or “save us we beseech thee.” It is sung as a prayer of praise and hope. As we enter into the Eucharistic prayer at Mass, we proclaim that we are indeed saved by God in the person of Jesus Christ, and especially in the breaking of the bread.

Lamb of God/Agnus Dei

Agnus Dei does mean lamb of God; and so we sing one of these at Mass. The ancient Israelites up to modern day Jews celebrate the Passover each year, recalling their being set free from bondage in Egypt during the Exodus. In the Gospel of John 1:29, John the Baptist says: “Look! The lamb of God!” Thus, Jesus is the one who sets us free, in God, from death. In Baptism, we die to sin and are raised up with Christ. This is what we proclaim before Communion: we receive the Body of Jesus the Christ, the Lamb of God.

Sr. Sallie Latkovich, CSJ, is a Parishioner at St. Cecilia Catholic Community, in Fort Myers, FL, is a member of the Congregation of St. Joseph, and holds a Doctor of Ministry Degree from the Graduate Theological Foundation in Scripture and Spirituality.

SAFE ENVIRONMENT TRAINING

Mandatory For New Volunteers

The Diocese of Venice is committed to provide a safe environment for children and vulnerable adults. To that end, persons working with children or visiting vulnerable adults, as well as any volunteer for any ministry, are required to be finger printed (this process includes a background check) and to receive training in recognizing potential signs of abuse. The training portion can be done in your home over a PC.

For further information, visit the Diocesan website at www.dioceseofvenice.org/safeenvironment to see what is required before the parish can accept a volunteer into any ministry. Any cost a volunteer incurs to complete these requirements will be fully reimbursed on request. Report any abuse against minors to the Florida Department of Children and Families at 800-962-2873. To report abuse by Diocesan personnel or volunteers, notify the Diocesan Victims Assistance Coordinator, Susan Benton, at (941) 416-6114.
