Remembering Vatican II

By: Sr. Sallie Latkovich, CSJ

Pope John XXIII called for a new Council in the Church in 1959; and preparations began for Bishops from around the world to gather for its first meeting in the fall of 1962. There were four sessions of the Council, with Bishops meeting each fall until 1965. Many of us lived during these years, many of us were born after the Council. It was a significant, meaningful event for our Church.

Recently, on January 7, 2026, our Pope Leo XIV presented Vatican II as the Church's enduring "North Star" calling Catholics to redicsover its documents as a living guide for proclaiming Christ, defending human dignity, promoting justice and peace, and renewing the Church in fidelity to the Gospel.

The Council produced sixteen documents, including four key constitutions that led to the greatest renewal of the Church in recent times. Unfortunately, there was never good education about these documents, nor about the changes in the Church. And, of course, there were/are those who disagree with the Council itself and the changes that followed. Here is a brief description of the four core documents:

THE CONSTITUTION ON THE CHURCH (title in Latin: Lumen Gentium or Light of the World)

This Document defines the Church as the whole people of God, not only the hierarchy or clergy, but all of the baptized. Furthermore, all are called to holiness.

THE CONSTITUTION ON THE SACRED LITURGY (title in Latin: Sacrosanctum Concilium or Most Holy Gathering)

This document called for a renewal of liturgy in the Church so that its members could experience full, active and conscious participation in the Eucharist and Sacraments. Thus, the altar faces the people, the language is the language of the place (vernacular), and lay men and women take roles as lectors and Eucharistic ministers. Music was to be sung by all as participants, and not simply be performed.

THE CONSTITUTION ON DIVINE REVELATION (title in Latin: Dei Verbum or Word of God)

The Council of Trent, in mid 16th Century removed the Scriptures from Catholic practice. (as the Council Fathers thought that it was the Gospel that incited Luther to post his thesis criticizing the Church.) This Vatican II Document states that the "scriptures belong to the people of God." Also, the Liturgy of the Word was returned to prominence and there should be ongoing professional study of the Scriptures. Since this Document, adult faith formation often offers Bible Study in parishes.

THE PASTORAL CONSTITUTION ON THE CHURCH IN THE MODERN WORLD (title in Latin: Gaudeum et Spes or Joy and Hope)

This is a very practical Document on the mission of the Church, how the Catholic Church interacts with contemporary society, culture, science and politics. There is a strong call to doing justice, seeking peace.

Sr. Sallie Latkovich is a Parishioner at St. Cecilia Catholic Community and a member of the Congregation of St. Joseph. She holds a Doctor of Ministry Degree from the Graduate Theological Foundation in Scripture and Spirituality.

Safe Environment Training

Mandatory For New Volunteers

The Diocese of Venice is committed to provide a safe environment for children and vulnerable adults. To that end, persons working with children or visiting vulnerable adults, as well as any volunteer for any ministry, are required to be finger printed (this process includes a background check) and to receive training in recognizing potential signs of abuse. The training portion can be done in your home over a PC.

For further information, visit the Diocesan website at www.dioceseofvenice.org/ safeenvironment to see what is required before the parish can accept a volunteer into any ministry. Any cost a volunteer incurs to complete these requirements will be fully reimbursed on request. Report any abuse against minors to the Florida Department of Children and Families at 800-962-2873.To report abuse by Diocesan personnel or volunteers, notify the Diocesan Victims Assistance Coordinator, Susan Benton, at (941) 416-6114.

THE KNIGHT'S CORNER

Supreme Chaplain Archbishop William E. Lori recently wrote:

"It is good for us to read the scriptures prayerfully. But how? Often, we gravitate towards favorite passages that inspire or console us. I often return to Jesus' invitation, "Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest" (Mt 11:28). Those words of Jesus never fail to encourage and strengthen me, especially when cares weigh heavily on my heart. Most of us, I think, have a few "go-to" verses in Scripture, especially in times of trial.

Sometimes we read Scripture to jump start our prayer. Setting aside time for quite prayer, we find it difficult to focus our thoughts and affections. We think of everything except the Lord and his love. Reflecting on a few lines of Scripture can channel our thoughts and feelings, prompting conversation with God.

Our Council here at Saint Cecila meets on the second Tuesday of every month in the Parish Hall at 7:00 PM. New members are always welcome so see what you have been missing as an adult Catholic Christian.

Bulletin Announcement

As a new year approaches, we look forward to the blessings that come with it along with the spirit of renewal to deepen our love of God and love of neighbor.

Previously, it was announced that there will be a change in our daily Mass schedule beginning January 11, 2027, with daily Mass being offered at 12:10 PM year-round. This will be the time for daily Masses offered Monday through Thursday. Friday Mass will be offered at 8:00 AM, allowing Adoration to continue to flow from the celebration of Mass, as is called for. Starting on 2027, on the First Friday of each month, Adoration will extend to 7:50 PM, concluding with Benediction. All other Fridays of the month, Adoration will conclude with Benediction at 11:50 AM, as it currently does.

Beginning Saturday, January 16, Mass will also be offered at 8:00 AM. Please be aware that this does not take the place of/fulfill the obligation of the regularly scheduled Vigil/Sunday Masses but is an addition to the daily Mass offerings.

As we approach these final months of 2026, let us all continue to pray that the Holy Spirit illumines our path and that we become docile to the stirrings of the Spirit and the workings of God. Please continue to pray for our Priests and the Parish Staff Members as they work together to continue making St. Cecilia a Parish that reflects Unity and Love.
